Island Park Spruce-up Weekend

MT. PLEASANT, Mich., May 11, 2015 – The City of Mt. Pleasant Parks Department wishes to inform citizens of upcoming work at various Island Park locations the weekend of May 15-17.

Friday, May 15, Volunteers from the Home Depot will be at Island Park Veteran's Memorial supporting the improvement effort by planting flowers, trees and placing mulch. Home Depot has also provided a grant to support the cost of these improvements.

Saturday, May 16, The General Agency Company, as part of their 100th anniversary celebration, has coordinated a dedicated group of volunteers to help with clean-up, staining of out buildings and plantings as well as spreading mulch on playground areas. The General Agency not only provided the workforce for these projects but the funds to make it all happen.

Sunday, May 17, Forgotten Eagles Chapter 3 has planned their annual memorial clean-up day and will pick up where the Home Depot and General Agency volunteers left off with additional flower plantings, painting of signs and building.
