Woman charged with embezzlement

For Immediate Release

MT. PLEASANT, Mich. March 22, 2016 – On March 17, 2016, an officer investigated an embezzlement case filed by B's music. An employee, Sara Jamison, a 25 year old Mt. Pleasant woman, had been accused of stealing money. The manager stated the employee had taken about $4,900 dollars over the course of 10 weeks.

On March 18, 2016, Jamison came into the Mt. Pleasant Police Department for an interview on the embezzlement charges. During the course of the interview, Jamison admitted to taking some of the money by manipulating the computer system to defraud the business.

Jamison was arrested and lodged at the Isabella County Sheriff's Department. Jamison was arraigned on charges of Embezzlement and Computer-Using to Commit a Crime. Bond was set at $50,000/ten percent.
