

Egg hunts and activities planned

For Immediate Release

MT. PLEASANT, Mich. March 24, 2015 – Two egg hunts are planned for both children and teenagers leading up to Easter Sunday weekend.

Eager teen egg hunters are invited to bring their flashlights and participate in the Teen Flashlight Egg Hunt at 8:30 p.m. Sunday, March 29 at Island Park, South Shelter.

The event is organized by Mt. Pleasant Parks and Recreation and is free and open to the public.

Hundreds of candy fill eggs will be waiting for teens in Island Park. Bring a flashlight, come dressed for the weather and be ready to enjoy a night of fun, food and amazing prizes!

Special eggs are filled with prizes including gift cards for food, music and movie passes. One lucky teen will walk away with a special grand prize.

The second hunt for children, The Great Egg Scramble, will be held at Finch Fieldhouse (Campus of CMU – between Bellows and Preston streets) at 12:30 p.m. Saturday, April 4.

Admission is free, but canned goods are accepted and benefit the Isabella Community Soup Kitchen.

Scramble times are scheduled by age group: 2-3 year-olds at 1 p.m., 4-5 year-olds at 2 p.m., 6-7 year-olds at 2:30 p.m., and 8-10 year-olds at 3 p.m.

In addition to scrambling for plastic eggs, candy and prizes, youth ages 2-10 will enjoy crafts, games, inflatable obstacle courses, refreshments and the opportunity to meet Peter Cottontail.

The Great Egg Scramble is made possible by Mt. Pleasant Parks and Recreation and 95.3 WCFX.
