Questions?

Please contact the City Manager's office at (989) 779-5323 or via e-mail at apritchard@mt-pleasant.org

Under Michigan law the Mayor of a municipality has the authority to officiate at a marriage ceremony conducted within Isabella County. This service is offered by the Mayor of Mount Pleasant under the following conditions:

1. The Mayor's availability is the sole determining factor in responding to a request to officiate at a marriage ceremony. Please note that the Mayor is elected at the first City Commission meeting each year, and each Mayor is free to establish his or her own calendar of availability.
2. The ceremony must take place within Isabella County. The location should be reviewed with the City Manager's staff to confirm that this requirement is satisfied.
3. City Commission resolution requires that the Mayor charge $30 to officiate at a marriage ceremony. The fee for a rehearsal is $10. These fees must be paid prior to the day of the ceremony. Payment may be made at City Hall, 320 West Broadway, at the Treasurer's Office. (Checks should be payable to the City of Mount Pleasant.)
4. Ceremonies conducted at City Hall must take place during normal business hours (8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday).
5. The parties to the marriage assume responsibility for all wedding arrangements. This includes but is not limited to determining availability of and possible conflicting activities in a City park if the wedding is scheduled to take place in same.
6. The prospective bride and groom are encouraged to select one of the sample ceremonies provided in this booklet or compose their own vows and convey them to the City Manager's staff no less than ten days before the scheduled date of the ceremony.

Sample Ceremony Two

Explanation of Marriage

You are about to enter into a union which is most serious. It is most serious because it will bind you together for life in a relationship so close and intimate that it will profoundly influence your whole future. That future, with its hopes and disappointments, its successes and its failures, its pleasures and its pains, its joys and its sorrows, is hidden from your eyes. You know that these elements are mingled in every life, and are to be expected in your own. And so, not knowing what is before you, you take each other for better or for worse, for richer or poorer, in sickness and in health.

Truly, then, these words are most serious. It is a beautiful tribute to your loving faith in each other that, recognizing their importance, you are nevertheless so willing and ready to pronounce them. And because the words involve such solemn obligations, it is most fitting that you rest the security of your wedded life upon the great principle of self-sacrifice. And so you begin your married life by the voluntary and complete surrender of your individual lives in the interest of that deeper and wider life which you two have in common. Henceforth, you will belong entirely to each other; you will be one in mind, one in heart and one in affection.

No greater blessing can come to your married life than pure matrimonial love, loyal and true to the end. May then this love with which you join your hands and hearts today never fail, but grow deeper and stronger as the years go on. And if true love and unselfish spirit of sacrifice guide your every action, you can expect the greatest measure of earthly happiness that may be allotted to each of you.

Exchange of Vows

(Mayor to the Groom)

Do you, _____, take this woman _____, to be your lawful wedded wife?

(Groom)

I, _____, take thee, _____, for my lawful wife, to love, honor and keep you as a faithful husband is bound to do, in health and in sickness, in prosperity and adversity, and forsaking all others, keep myself only unto you.

(Mayor to the Bride)

Do you, _____, take this man _____, to be your lawful wedded husband?

(Bride)

I, _____, take thee, _____, for my lawful husband, to love, honor and keep you as a faithful wife is bound to do, in health and in sickness, in prosperity and adversity, and forsaking all others, keep myself only unto you.

Giving and Receiving of Rings

(Groom)

With this ring I thee wed, and pledge my faith.

(Bride)

With this ring I thee wed, and pledge my faith.

Conclusion

(Mayor)

For as much as _____ and _____ have consented to live together in wedlock, and having declared their intentions before these witnesses and no legal impediments having been shown, by the authority vested in me by the laws of the State of Michigan and the office of Mayor, I now pronounce you husband and wife.
